HYMN

TLH 148

Lord, Jesus Christ, my Life, my Light, My strength by day, my Trust by night, On earth I'm but a passing guest And sorely with my sins oppress.

Far off I see my fatherland, Where through Thy blood I hope to stand.
But ere I reach that Paradise, A weary way before me lies.

My heart sinks at the journey's length, My wasted flesh has little strength;
My soul alone still cries in me: "Lord, take me home, take me to Thee!"

Oh, let Thy sufferings give me power To meet the last and darkest hour!
Thy blood refresh and comfort me; Thy bonds and fetters make me free.

Oh, let Thy holy wounds for me, Clefts in the rock forever be;
Where as a dove my soul can hide, And safe from Satan's rage abide.

And when my spirit flies away, Thy dying words shall be my stay.
Thy cross shall be my staff in life, Thy holy grave my rest from strife.
